It is eight miles from the railroad at St. Johnsbury.

In Walden, Wheelock, Hardwick, Craftsbury, Greensboro, Irasburgh, Coventry, Newport, Barton, Glover and Derby, I saw farms occupied by former residents of this county, bought at figures that persons acquainted only with Franklin county prices, seem astonishingly low. In several other towns there are more of the same kind, but I did not extend my the aggregate, the names of over one hunnow in this section.

Of the recent purchase of Mr. W. D. While I still believe, and most of the persons I am writing of concede, that Franklin county is the best dairy county in New England, I nevertheless believe that, with careful, judicious cultivation in the light of this age of scientific farming, the farmers of Orleans and Caledonia counties, can keep their farms up in condition, and pay a greater per cent on their investment, than can now be done in Franklin county

Amusements.

At the recent convention of the Young Men's Christian Association at Montreal the subject of introducing certain amusements into the rooms of the several Associations came up for discussion. The following, among other remarks were

Mr. Page, of Ausonia, (Conn.) had tailed up to to-night, during the sittings of the present convention, to catch any point of vital interest. The question of attractions had been broached. He could tell them a little about the effects of some of these. Billiards had been put into the Danberry Young Men's rooms. and the consequence had been that that association had gone under. The introduction of billiards there had been fraught with the worst consequences: for young men had supposed that since the Young Men's Christian Association sanctioned their use, there could be no barm or danger : and, in that little place, where many of the young men scarcely knew the name of billiards and other games, -The new book, "The bench and Bar,"
